Ray's Corner Hardware
Right at Ray's Right on the Corner

When a quality tire fails in mileage, ten to one its BUILD is imperfect. Its strength has probably been weakened by wrinkles or creases, formed in the fabric during vulcanization. The casing looks all right, but it won't last.

In McGraw Tires such internal defects are prevented so far as humanly possible by the Duplex Method of Vulcanization. The tire is a perfect structure. FULL mileage is assured.

McGraw TIRES are bound to deliver; they are MADE that way.

Film Contrasts Women.

Two types of modern women are contrasted in "Young Mrs. Winthrop," the new Paramount Artcraft picture in which Ethel Clayton is coming to the Isis Theater next Sunday. The heroine, portrayed by pretty Miss Clayton is a young and dutiful wife who is estranged from her husband by an unfortunate combination of circumstances. The other woman is a gay, happy-go-lucky divorcee, who has already tried two husbands and is now debating which one of them she will remarry. As it turns out, a third party wins her frivolous heart. Miss Clayton, as the misunderstood wife, is finally won back to her husband in the dramatic climax.

"Young Mrs. Winthrop" is a Paramount Artcraft picture directed by Walter Edwards. The leading male role, that of the young husband, is ably portrayed by Harrison Ford.

Pastime Theatre.

Ed Baxter's Sea Beach Girls offer an entirely new bill today, entitled "Room 13," a blackface musical comedy built for laughing purposes only. Mr. Baxter, as "Jack," the wandering minstrel, and Frank Hayes as Mr. Hockman, Paulina La Conda as the leader of votes for women, the Sea Beach Quartette, will keep the audience in good humor for the whole time; the film program is "The Peddler of Lies."

Five—Count 'em—Five Beauties in Film.

A quintette of the most beautiful women ever seen together on the screen appears in "The Peddler of Lies," the Universal photoplay coming to the Pastime theatre today.

The five nationally known beauties are Ora Carow, co-starring in the production with Frank Mayo; Dagmar Godowsky, the pianist; Bonnie Hill, formerly special model for Vogue; Flora Hollister, who played the Gaby Deslys role in "Stop, Look, Listen," and pretty Ora Deveraux, a musical comedy favorite.

"The Peddler of Lies" originally appeared in the Saturday Evening Post as "The Peddler," from the pen of Henry C. Rowland. William C. Dowland, who directed Miss Carow in "Loot" and "Under Suspicion," directed it. Many of the scenes were made in Santa Barbara, the billionaire's colony of America.

WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH THAT CHILD?

When children grow pale and listless their blood may be weak.

Pepto-Mangan Makes Red Blood

Sold by druggists in liquid and tablet form—both the same in medicinal quality.

When your child loses color, acts and talks without spirit, and does not play like other children, act quickly.

If the condition is not a deep-seated disease but merely due to poor blood, give Pepto-Mangan. Gude's Pepto-Mangan is just the tonic for pale, thin children whose blood needs rebuilding. It is a pleasant-tasting, simple combination of exactly the ingredients that increase and enrich the blood.

Beneficial results show almost at once in brighter eyes, blooming cheeks, a sprightly step, and the whole system made more vigorous.

Pepto-Mangan is obtainable in liquid or tablet form, whichever proves most convenient. Both forms possess identical medicinal qualities.

There is but one genuine Pepto-Mangan and that is "Gude's." Ask your druggist for "Gude's" and look for the name "Gude's" on the package. If it is not there, it is not Pepto-Mangan. Advertisement.
